

Employer Honor Roll Applauds Walgreens & Alison Worthen

Kudos to Walgreens of Middletown! The company was one of only three businesses throughout the state to receive an Outstanding Achievement Award at the Rhode Island Employer Honor Roll Awards Ceremony.

Recognized for its efforts to create an integrated workplace involving employees in all aspects of the daily work environment, Walgreens won the award for outstanding Integration. The awards presentation was sponsored by The Rhode Island Department of Human Services, Office of Rehabilitation Services and State Rehabilitation Council.

Honored for her vocational accomplishments, Walgreen employee, Alison Worthen, received a certificate from Governor Carcieri's Office.

Additionally, two local businesses, Walgreens and The Defense Commissary on the Newport Naval Base, were among eleven companies noted in the 2009 Rhode Island Employer Honor Roll.

Alison Worthen (left) and Walgreens' manager, Kristy Maccarone